L O N D O N, April 6.

AS soon as the Middlesex election was ended in favour of Mr. Wilkes, a person was employed to carry the news to some of his friends at Paris: a native of Switzerland undertook to deliver the same in 51 hours; he accordingly set out by agreement. and performed the journey in 47 hours, notwithstanding he was detained nine hours in an open boat on the seas, for which he has since received an adequate reward.
The man was so much galled when he came to Paris, that the blood ran out of the knees of his breeches.

It is reported, that when the new parliament
meets, a plan will be proposed for new-modelling the militia in England and Wales.

On Saturday a cobbler in Swithin's-lane, was committed to prison on the information of one of the sheriffs officers, for being concerned in the riot at the mansion-house, and breaking the windows &c.

It is reported, that when the new parliament
meets, articles of impeachment will be exhibited against three great personages.

Yesterday morning an express arrived in town, with advice of the death of his Grace the Duke of Rutland, last night, at Belvoir castle in Lincolnshire.

Yesterday several colony agents attended at Lord Hillsborough's office Whitehall, with some dispatches lately recieved from the American colonies.

April 8. It is said that the Duke of Northumberland will soon be nominated to a distinguished post in the administration, in consequence of an intended Resignation of a very great man.

April 9. A certain great person, who warmly efpoussed the cause of those who lost their election at N—n, is said to have spent above 40,000l. on that occasion.

Some great men are already cutting down their timber, in consequence of extraordinary expences at the late elections.

It is said, that Sir William Baker has not only declared his intention of resigning his gown, but is actually making interest in his ward for Mr. Wilkes to succeed him as Alderman.

They write from Geneva that M. de Voltaire is employed in a new satirical work, entitled the Princess of Babylon.

Intelligence Extraordinary.

A process of Outlawry is commenced against the L—d Ch—r and the first L—d of the T—ry, stanch tho' secret friends of Mr. Wilkes. The charge is contempt of the COURT and non-appearance.

It is now said, that a treaty of perpetual friendship and good understanding, between a certain very unpopular, though respectable nobleman, and a very popular commoner, will be brought about, by the marriage of the second son of the former, with the only daughter of the latter, who will be an immense fortune, as in all probability she will inherit the father's abilities, and the mother's many excellent qualities.

April 19. An eminent sounder in this city has received a commission from Corsica for above 50 church bells, of a good size, and the best metal England can afford.

On Saturday night some dispatches, said to be of some importance, were sent away to Falmouth, to be put on board the packet-boat bound for New-York, for Major General Gage, commander in chief of his Majesty's Forces in North-America.

They write from New-York, that Messrs. Tot-ten and Crossfield are building four stout ships, erected to mount twenty-carriage guns, to be sent,
soon as finished, for sale to the island of Corsica.
Letters from Boston and Philadelphia mention house rent had fallen in those cities, in the space of a few months, upward of 15 per cent, occasioned by the decay of trade and great scarcity of money.

On Tuesday the Right Hon. the Lord
Mansfield, the master of the rolls, the judges, at law, King's council, the attorney general, and all the officers attending courts of justice, went, with the usual so-Westminster hall, being the first day of April 13. From the west end of the town we hear, that on the 20th of this instant April, a grand and most interesting contest, which it is said, will last for several days, will commence at a noted house there, between the English rose and Liberty on the one part, and the S—ch Thistle and Slavery on the other. The former has of late years been often severely prick'd by the bristly thorns of the latter; but it is the earnest wish and hope of all true born Englishmen, that on this occasion the English-rose, with the assistance of the heavenly Goddess Liberty, will gain such a complete victory as will compel Thistles and their infernal Goddess Slavery, to fly to their native soil in the North and there remain for ever.

It is confidently asserted, that an annual capitation tax will be laid next sessions on all working foreigners residing in Great-Britain, which, at only 40s. per annum, it is computed will bring near a million sterling into the Exchequer.

It is generally asserted, that when Mr. Wilkes surrenders to the court of King's-bench, to receive judgment, his sentence will be adjourned sine die.

20th. It is remarkable that the name of J. Wilkes, Esq; was not inserted in the London Gazette, as returned member for Middlesex, 'till last Saturday evening on which day a grand council has been previously held, at which the Earl of Chatham was present.

It is computed, that near 30,000l. has been spent in London and Middlesex, during the course of the late elections, on account of Mr. Wilkes's being a candidate for both places; to the increase of his Majesty's revenue, and the great emolument of numbers of his subjects.

We are assured, as an absolute fact, that the day after a late popular election was over, a person of distinction had an audience of a great personage, who asked him if he had got his windows broke, to which he replied in the negative, upon which the great personage with the most placid countenance, said, that no damage was done except to a few obstinate people.

It is now talked that an Act of Grace for all misdemeanors committed before the first of January last, or before the dissolution of the last Parliament, will be moved for, on the first meeting of the new Parliament.

They write from Jamaica, that a fire lately broke out at the Havannah, which consumed seventy houses, and two men of war.

April 14. Subscriptions are actually set on foot at several houses of public resort in Middlesex, by the freeholders of the county, for the independent support of their new member, Mr. Wilkes, and to enable him to preserve his inflexible integrity which has been hitherto the invariable rule of his conduct. Would the other counties, cities, and boroughs, follow this laudable example, and support the independency of their representatives, we might then expect to see the glorious times of our fore-fathers restored, when the free voices of a British parliament were in no danger of being biased by a corrupt administration. It is scarce necessary to mention, that any representative may legally call upon his constituents for support, though in these degenerate times, it is much to be feared, none will have the fortitude to follow the example of a Marvel, who actually sued the town of Kingston-upon-Hull, for the charges allowed him by the laws.

It is now positively said Mr. Wilkes will be committed, and punished to the utmost severity of the law.

And it is also said, an act of parliament will be immediately passed to render him unqualified to sit as a member of the house of commons.

We hear likewise, that a great personage is determined not to pardon a late exile, so that it may be expected he will be obliged again to leave his native country.

It is said that the reason of appointing a review on the 20th inst. was to diminish or draw away the mob which were expected to be assembled that day at W—n—t—r-Hall, to wait the event of Mr. W—s's sentence.

By some late advices from Holland, we are informed, that the Empress Queen has forbid her subjects of the Austrian Netherlands to carry on any intercourse or trade with the Dutch: the reason for this unexpected procedure is not assigned.

Newport, Isle of Wight, April 2. On the news of Mr. Wilkes's being returned by a glorious majority as member of the county of Middlesex, the genuine spirit of liberty appeared in this town in full honours: forty-five freeholders met at the Butcher's tavern; the house was splendidly illuminated with 45 candles in each window; 45 huzzas were each and echoed to the following spirited and constitutional toasts:

1. The King—May the energies of the be always exerted in confidence with the rig the people!
2. Speedy punishment and everlasting in the issuers of general warrants and their abettors!
3. The glorious revolution, and ba laden.
4. Free writing, free speaking, and

5. May all the propositions of John Wilkes, Esq; now the glorious elected member for the county of Middlesex, meet with their desired and deserved effect.

The ringers being genteelly paid, and with the douceur of forty-five quarts of good English beer, gave forty-five fires on the bells; forty-five huzzas were shouted from the tower, on which forty-five candles were lighted forty-five minutes after one o'clock.

Glasgow, April 20. Two Indian Chiefs belonging to the province of Connecticut, lately arrived here in a vessel from New-York. After satisfying their curiosity respecting every thing in this city, they set out last week for London, where they are to lay some grievances before his Majesty, by the advice of Sir William Johnson. They appeared to be plain sensible men.

B O S T O N, June 13.

Last Friday Evening some Commotions happen'd in this Town, in which a few Windows were broke, and a Boat was drawn thro' the Streets and burnt on the Common; since which, Things have been tolerably quiet; it being expected that the Cause of this Disturbance will be speedily removed.

A letter from the Mount, dated May 21st, mentions that a new Governor arrived there the day before, and had forbid all trade with the English, and ordered such vessels as were there, to depart from thence in 15 days.

We hear from Virginia, that no goods imported from Great-Britain, which are subject to payment of any of the late duties, are permitted to be exposed to sale by the merchants there, or even allowed to be kept in their possession; but that as soon as any such arrive among them, they are lodg'd in the care of the custom-house there. It is tho't by many persons, that if the merchants of the several colonies would desist from importing any of those commodities, subject to duties here, it would be the most effectual and constitutional method of getting redress of the grievance so much complained of.

June 16. Friday last towards Evening the Officers of the Customs for this Port, made a Seizure of a Sloop belonging to and lying at the Wharf of John Hancock, Esq; which Vessel was improved as a Store to put some Barrels of Oil on board, there being no room in the Owner's Stores on the Wharf; After the Officers took Possession of the Sloop, one of them made a Signal to his Majesty's Ship Romney, then lying off in the Harbour, whereupon the Boats belonging to the said Ship, were immediately mann'd and arm'd, and made towards the Wharf: Several Gentlemen present advised the Officers not to move her, as there would be no Attempt allowed by the Owner to rescue her out of their Hands; but notwithstanding this Declaration her Fast was cut away, and she carried under the Guns of the Romney:—This Conduct provoked the People who had collected on the Shore, and in the Dispute, the Collector, the Comptroller of his Majesty's Customs, and the Collector's Son, were roughly used, and pelted with Stones, none of them much hurt: The Noise brought together a mix'd Multitude, who follow'd up to the Comptroller's House and broke some of his Windows, but withdrew by the Advice of some prudent Gentlemen that interposed;—they were joined by a Number of Sailors, and vagrant Persons who were suspicious of an Intention to put them on board the Ship,—these went in search for one of the Man of War's Boats, in their Way met with the Inspector of Exports and Imports, him they attacked, broke his Sword, and tore his Clothes; but by some Assistance he with Difficulty escaped to a House in King-Street:—No Boat being ashore, between 8 and 9 o'Clock they went to one of the Docks, and dragged out a large Pleasure-Boat belonging to the Collector, this they drew along the Street, with loud huzzas all the way, into the Common, where they set Fire to it, and burnt it to Ashes; they also broke several Windows of the Houses of the Collector and Inspector-General, which were nigh the Common: No other Outrage was committed that Night.

There were some Occurrences respecting the Officers of the Romney, preceding this Affair, which raised the Resentment of the Populace: On the Sunday Evening before, a Prefs-Gang went on board a Vessel just arrived from Glasgow, and which came to anchor off the Long-Wharf, the impress'd Men took an Opportunity while the Man of War's Men were on board, to get into the Boat, and got into shore; it being after sembled on the Wharf to made way for the gang as soon as they saw them, crying stop even thereto, an Officer which raised a Clamour from Landing:—that had served an impression was made to not to detain and he engaged a Man was bro't for three or four Guineas, but upon his being carried on board the Romney, was refused, as the Officers of the Ship had been insulted, in the above Affair; many Things were said to the Person who went to get the young Man released, reflecting on the Town, and not without some Threats:—The Day following a Man was taken out of an Eastern Vessel, by an arm'd Schooner that was bound to Halifax:—These Transactions, with a Prospect of the Trade and Business of this and other Towns being in a Manner ruin'd, raised such a Spirit of Resentment in the People, that the Board of Commissioners (those of them who arrived last November from England) and their other Officers, together with the Collector and Comptroller for this Port, as also the Officers of the Romney, thought it most prudent to repair on board the Ship.

On Monday the People in Town were in great Agitation; but lest any Tumult might arise at Night, the Consequences whereof would be very prejudicial, a Notification was posted up in divers Parts of the Town, requesting the Sons of Liberty to meet at Liberty Hall on Tuesday the 14th, at Ten o'Clock in the Forenoon; the Expectation of this Meeting kept the Town in Peace: Early on Tuesday Morning the Colours were flying on Liberty-Tree; and at the Hour appointed, vast Numbers of the Inhabitants appeared at and near the Hall; but the Weather being wet and uncomfortable in the Street, they adjourned to Faneuil-Hall; where it was proposed to have a legal Meeting called; accordingly a Warrant was issued by the Select-Men to the Constables to warn a Meeting of the Freeholders and other Inhabitants of the Town, at three o'Clock; and several Gentlemen were nominated to prepare a Draft of some Matters proper to lay before them: At three o'Clock the Inhabitants met, but so great was the Concurrence that they were obliged to adjourn from Faneuil-Hall to the Old South Meeting-House: The Transactions at the Meeting, &c. relative to the above we shall give in the Gazette, if they come timely to Hand.

It has been reported that the Sloop was seized because no Permit for Loading was taken out at the Custom-House before the Oil was put on board; others report that it was for Breach of the Acts of Trade in her last Voyage, which was from Madeira; but which of the Reports is right we are not able to inform the Public.

We have related the Affair in as impartial a Manner as we were able; if there is any material Mistake it shall be corrected upon Notice being given.

NEWBERN, (in North-Carolina) May 27.

The General Assembly which stood prorogued to the 15th of June, his Excellency the Governor has thought proper to prorogue to the 12th of January next, then to sit at Newbern for the Dispatch of public Business.

June 3. The Sloop Tryon, of this Place, arrived here on Saturday last from Norfolk; she met with very hard Gales of Wind, and was obliged to stand for several Days, but received no Damage; Trade was very dull there, no Commodity would fetch Money, or hardly sell at any Rate; so great is the Stagnation of Business for Want of a Currency among them.

Two Sloops have also arrived here, since our last, from the West-Indies, who bring Accounts of the great Plenty of all Kinds of Lumber and Provisions then there, and that nothing we can send them will now fetch the prime Cost.

By a Letter from Mr. Joseph Jones, a Gentleman well known here, and who we apprehended was lost, we have the following Account of the Disasters that befell him in his Passage to this Country.

That on the 6th of December last, he sailed from Philadelphia in a Sloop, bound to Pasquotank, having on board Salt, Rum, Molasses, and dry Goods, in order to build a Vessel there; and that soon after, they met with a violent Gale of Wind which carried away their Boom, Main Sail, and all the Rigging; that several other hard Gales reduced them to a meer Wreck; in which Situation they continued till January, when a Ship from Charleston Town to Oporto took them up, and carried them in there; from thence he got a Passage to Liverpool, from whence his Letter is dated the 2d of March, and intended to take his Passage either to Philadelphia or this Place.

NEWPORT, June 6.

Last Saturday Capt. Thomas Teagle Taylor arrived here from Virginia, by whom we are informed, That in his Passage to Virginia, on the 14th April last, about 14 Leagues from Chingoteague Shoals, he took up a Sea Chest; which, on Examination, prov'd to be one Capt. Dalling's from North-Carolina, bound to Piscataway, his Owners named Sherburn: In the Chest were dry Clothes, about seven Pounds of Carolina Pepper Money, several Letters to Gentlemen in Boston and Piscataway, with a Number of other Papers and the Journal; all which are so much damaged they are scarcely legible.

Last Friday at the Superior Court, held here, Mr. Robert Young, Mr. Thomas Careless, and Mr. Charles John Marshall, had their Trial, for the supposed Murder of Henry Sparket. The jury, consisting of Gentlemen of Capacity and doubted Reputation, with the Evidences that unhappy Affair, returned to the jury, not Guilty, the satisfaction of the Court was immediate.

N. B. Mr. Dexter now almost recovered in Favour of the Prisoners. We are informed, in this town, made manifest of which were manifest.

PROVIDENCE, June 4.

From Plainfield, in Connecticut, we are advised, that on the 28th ult. one John Spalding of that place, carrying his horse, was kicked in the bowels, and the horse's hoof entering his belly, was so much hurt, that he expired the next morning.

From Gloucester we are informed, that one Foster, was suspected of being concerned in the murder of a bastard child at that place, an officer, with a number of the inhabitants, went to his house last Wednesday night, in order to take him; but he refused to surrender, and produced a pistol, declaring he would defend himself, whereupon the officer entered the house, with a pistol in his hand, when Foster was shot thro' the body, and died in a few hours after.

HARTFORD, May 30.

We hear from Deerfield, that on Thursday the 11th instant, the house of one — Arms of that place, took fire from a Joiner's shop that stood near it, and was entirely consumed, but what is most affecting the wife of said Arms perished in the flames.

NEW-LONDON, June 3.

We hear that three Millionaires were this Week dispatched from Lebanon, by Doct. Wheelock, to preach among the Indian Nations.

We are informed that the Rev. Mr. Occum, during his residence in England, had the proffer of a Gowen, and with it some lucrative offer; which he refused.

NEW-YORK, JUNE 23.

Extra of a Letter from an eminent Merchant in London, dated April, 1768.

"Mr. Trecothick is just chosen Member for this City, and I am heartily glad of it, having done all in my Power to effect it, because I think him deserving; and however, some, nay many People in America said he was in the West-India Interest, and not in that of North-America: I who know his Actions very minutely, affirm that there is not a Man in England who exerted himself more, or had a greater Share in the Repeal of the Stamp-Act. An Act, if not repealed, would not have left a Man on that Continent one shilling Property, and therefore he deserves their Respect and Gratitude.

Mr. Wilkes lost his Election for the City of London, thro' his declaring too late, the Confusion and Mismanagement of some of his Friends, and the barefaced Opposition from above, with circular Letters, signed by their Servant Bodington. I rejoice and so does all the Town and Kingdom, that he is just elected Knight of the Shire for Middlesex, the most opulent County in the Kingdom, and which surrounds London."

Many Thousands of the two following Addresses to the Liverymen of London, were distributed previous to the Election.

On Mr. Wilkes's Outlawry.

IN the 35th Year of Elizabeth, the Commons expressly voted, That a Person OUTLAWED MIGHT be elected. The Queen, in her Speech to her last Parliament, complained of their admitting Outlaws, and represented that Conduct of the House as a great Abuse.

In 1604, Sir Francis Godwin being chosen Member for Bucks, the Chancellor vacated his Seat, and issued a Writ for a new Election, when Fortescue was chosen in his Place: But the first Act of the House was to remove Fortescue, and restore Sir Francis to his Seat. At the King's Instigation, the Lords desired a Conference on the Subject, but were absolutely refused by the Commons, as the Question regarded their own Privileges.

Gentlemen,

HONOUR the Man, protect and support HIM who has made your Houses, Castles; and your Papers sacred and secure against the detested Violence of General Warrants.

For securing this inestimable Blessing, and advancing the Cause of Liberty to you, HE was persecuted and obliged to fly his Country.

RESTORE HIM by your Suffrages, and prove to all the Abettors of Despotism, that the VOICE of the PEOPLE is the VOICE of GOD.

Friday Morning Capt. Elder arrived here from Falmouth, in 7 Weeks. Last Friday Week he saw a Ship standing to the Westward, with a Main-Jury-mast, and without a Head; and on the Day following, he had a very violent Gale of Wind at E. N. E. attended with a very heavy Sea.

Last Friday Night some Villains made an Attempt to break into the Store of Mr. James M'Evors, of this City, Merchant: They bored several Holes in the Window Shutters, opposite the Hinges, with a View to rend them off; but the inside Shutters having small Bells fixed to them, which no doubt rung by the Pressure on the Window Frame, and the Rogues imagining they would alarm the Family, we suppose, made off without obtaining any Booty. [The Expence of a few Shillings, in all Probability, has prevented the above Store from being plundered of many Thousands.]

The same Night a Store belonging to Mr. Theophilact Bache, in Petticoat-Lane, was broke open; and robbed of some Barrels of Pork and Flour. Two Soldiers are taken up on Suspicion of being concerned in the Robbery.

By some late Accounts from the Streights, we learn, that the French and Spaniards, in that Part of the World, are very busy in preparing for War; and that several Transports, with Troops on board, lately sailed from Cadiz, for the Spanish West-Indies.

The Sally, Rankin, from Newry, for Philadelphia, lately mentioned to be on Shore at Little Egg-Harbour, is gone all to Pieces.

On Sunday sailed from hence with the Mail for Falmouth, the Harriot Packet Boat, Capt. Oak, in whom went Passenger Mr. Lawrence Reade, of this City, Merchant.

On Tuesday came to Town a special Messenger from Boston with an Express, we hear, to his Excellency the General, relating to the late Disturbances in that Town.

Capt. Tingley, (in the Brig Olive Branch) who arrived on Tuesday last in 7 Weeks from Bristol; met a Brig 90 Leagues off Long-Island, from Newark bound for London; a Ship, 3 Weeks ago, from Jamaica for London; and a Ship from Honduras for Liverpool; but the Wind blowing hard, could not inquire the Names of the Captains and Vessels.

Capt. Castles (in the Ship Thomas Waddel) who arrived the same Day in 7 Weeks and 3 Days from Amsterdam, spoke the following Vessels, viz. June 5, Lat. 39. 52. Lon. 59. 20. a Ship from Maryland for London, 8 Days from the Capes of Virginia, and June 8, Lat. 40. 10. Lon. 60, a Ship, David Lord Master, 17 Days from Jamaica, bound for London.

By the last Papers and Advices from England, it appears, that the Election of Mr. Wilkes has exceedingly alarmed and irritated the whole Party of those Men in Power who have for several Years past been labouring to effect a total Change in the English Constitution, and to destroy that Freedom and Security of Property, for which the Nation has been so eminently distinguished, and to which it entirely owed its Prosperity and Grandeur.

It is thought, that in Order to keep him out of the Parliament, they will endeavour to postpone his Trial and continue his Confinement. Whether they will succeed or not, and whether the same System of Politicks will still be pursued which has already produced such a hideous Train of Evils; and from a prosperous united and happy People, has fill'd us with jealousy, —Discontent,—and Animosity;—reduced us from Affluence to a State of general Poverty, and driven us to the Verge of Ruin and Despair; or whether this System, or the Old English Constitution shall any longer Exist, will greatly depend upon the prevailing Temper of the new Parliament, the Discovery of which is waited for with anxious Solicitude.

SUPPLEMENT to the NE 1329 OR GENERAL ADVER

June 23. 1768. [T H U R S D A Y,

L O N D O N, April 2.

ACCORDING to the last advices from Constantinople, the report of Stefano's being taken, who otherwise styles himself the Czar Peter III. is not true; but that he is still at the head of a great number of vagabonds, who enrich themselves by the plunder they take from the Turks. The Grand Seigneur, it is added, has expressed his displeasure against the Venetians, as favouring the said rebel underhand; but the latter are taking measures to acquit themselves of this charge, by sending the most peremptory orders to their governors in the Morea to act vigorously against him. In the mean time, the Pacha, who commanded in the Turkish dominions in those parts, is also taking measures for preventing Stefano's further incursions, and even the little republic of Ragusa is very carefully shutting its gates against him; but on the other hand it is asserted, that two thirds of Venetian Dalmatia have joined the impostor and his Montenegrins.

April 5. The Purser of the Lord Holland East-Indiaman, Capt Nairne, from Bengal, who came to the East-India-house last Saturday, with an account of her safe arrival at Falmouth, brings the agreeable news that all is quiet and well there. The revenues of that kingdom have come in beyond expectation, and it is assured that there will be more ships and richer cargoes this year than ever came from that country. She likewise brings advice that Colonel Smith, who commands the troops in the six northern provinces on the coast of Coromandel, and who, as was some time ago mentioned, had marched against Hyder Ali, has defeated him in two engagements, and it is pursuing the advantage of his victories.

It is now said, that advices are brought over from the East-Indies of a very obstinate engagement between our troops and the Marattas, where a prodigious slaughter was made on both sides, but that at last our troops gained some advantage. The Lord Holland, which brought these advices, performed her voyage out and home in eleven months.

They write from Algiers, that on the 24th of last February, a large Caravan, consisting of five hundred horses and camels, set out by permission of the Dey, under the conduct of certain French merchants, on a journey to the inland country, and banks of the river Niger, for the establishment of an inland commerce between the Atlantic and Mediterranean sea.

The animosity, which of late years has unhappily too much subsisted between the South and North Britons, has in some measure subsided, since Mr. Wilkes offered himself a candidate for the county of Middlesex; on which occasion several Scotch gentlemen, much to their honour, laying aside little prejudices, not only interested themselves in his favour, but gave him single votes.

April 6. We hear the East-India Company have given orders for a large train of artillery to be got ready, against the sailing of the autumnal fleet for their Oriental settlements.

The government of Naples has issued an order, that no book, written by a Jesuit, shall be sold or kept in any bookellers shops. No books are excepted, not even those which relate to the mathematics.

Our last letters from Italy advise, that the Jesuits will not only be banished from the states of Genoa and Modena, but likewise out of the Austrian Lombardy. These letters add, that Cardinal Spinola is appointed Secretary of state at Rome, instead of Cardinal Torrigiani; and if this news be true, the society of the Jesuits will soon be abolished, the last mentioned Cardinal being their principal support.

A correspondent says, "Though the French retained fifteen hundred of their troops from Corsica last year, they intend to act quite a different plan this, and are to have twenty-one battalions there before July (twenty battalions make above 10,000 men); it is publicly said that Mons^r de Navarre, major-general, is to go with the first embarkment of seventeen, and that the Prince of Beauveau, lieutenant general, and in every respect of the highest rank, is to follow with the other six, and take the command. Politicians are left to settle the consequences."

Letters from Boston, New-England, mention, that the late public spirit for establishing new manufactures was greatly subsided, the adventurers having met with nothing but disappointments in procuring materials, scarcity of money, and high price of wages.

It is now said the following changes in the ministry will take place in a few days.

April 7. The Gazetteer of the 5th plan of a new Ministry, but we hear lift has transpired, viz.

The Duke of Newcastle to be President of the Council.

The Marquis of Rockingham, Secretary of State, Earl Temple, Lord High Treasurer.

Lord Chatham to continue Privy Seal.

Mr. Grenville, First Lord of the Admiralty, made a Peer.

Mr. Wilkes, Chancellor of the Exchequer.

And a total Change to be, in which the men most attached to his Majesty and his Family, and most capable to serve the public will succeed unto &c.

'Tis said, that if the expected changes should take place, Lord Hillsborough will be continued in his present office.

A certain great personage from Italy now lies embalmed at an undertaker's in the Fleet-market, in order to be interred at Norwich, his last words were Let me be buried in England.

April 11. The current report of Saturday was, that George Grenville, Esq; will soon be appointed one of his Majesty's Secretaries of state, — that General Conway will be made Paymaster of the forces, and Major General of the Ordnance: and the Duke of Northumberland, First Lord of the Treasury.

We are informed that great alterations will speedily be made in the board of ordinance.

It is said there will soon be some material changes in his Majesty's foreign governors, in America and the West-Indies.

We hear from Scotland, that a late election dinner had cost Three Hundred and Seventy-Four Pounds sterling.

A letter from Tregony in Cornwall mentions, that at the contested election, there, nine people were killed in the mob.

Letters from Rome mention, that one of the first Catholic courts, insists upon the total extinction of the order of Jesuits; and it is added, that a certain cardinal, who has always been a great advocate for them, is removed from the management of affairs, and even from the person of the Pope.

By a person arrived from Leeds in Yorkshire, we are informed, that riots have gone to such an uncommon height, on account of the dearth of provisions, that the populace have destroyed two or more persons in the marring and farming business.

Last night there was a captain's guard from the Tower to patrol about Wapping and Shadwell, to prevent any farther mischief or riots from the coal-heavers.

April 13. We learn from Edinburgh, that on the night of the 4th inst. several hundred persons assembled there, and carried on their shoulders a figure which they called Wilkes; and after parading the streets, and shouting Wilkes and Liberty, they carried him to the grass market, where they chaired the mock hero, on the stone where the gallows is usually fixed at execution; after making a fire, they committed the effigy to the flames, and scattered the ashes in the air, and then dispersed.

By the beginning of May it is expected the town will be as full as ever was known on any occasion.

A great number of electors for a certain county we hear have signed a petition, to a most illustrious assembly, declaring that they were intimidated by the mob, from voting at a certain Election.

Lord Chatham it is said enjoys a better state of health at present, than he has been known to possess a considerable time.

April 21. We hear that several countries and boroughs intend to instruct their members not to consent to the expulsion of Mr. Wilkes; as it is generally believed that the Ministry propose to move the house for that measure.

It was lately publicly asserted, by a remarkable strenuous friend of Mr. Wilkes, that, to his positive knowledge, Mr. Wilkes did not write one word of the North Briton, No. 45, and that he (Mr. Wilkes) even never saw it till it was printed off.

April 26. A certain gentleman at Poplar, the friend of the patriotic Wilkes, had last Tuesday a very elegant dinner; the company consisted of 45 gentlemen; at 45 minutes past one, there were drank 45 gills of wine, with 45 new laid eggs in them: precisely at 45 minutes past two, a very genteel dinner was served up, being five courses, nine dishes each, which made the No. 45. — In the middle of the table, the figures 45 were inlaid with mother of pearl, on which was placed a noble surloin of beef, weighing 45 pounds, the table cloth and plates were marked 45, on the back of every chair those figures were carved, and exactly 25 gilt nails in a chair, which, with the 20, on each person, with great number, made three o'clock. — Ledger.

On Saturday between 2 and 3000 coal heavers, all neatly dressed, divided into several gangs, each carrying a streamer, with musick playing before them, went from Wapping, and waited on William Beckford, Esq; in Soho-Square, with a petition setting forth their grievances, and praying redress.

We hear Mr. Wilkes is chosen one of the stewards to the Antislavery society for the present year.

April 28. His Majesty has appointed Thomas Shirley, Esq; to be Vice-Admiral of the Bahama Islands, in America; in the room of Lieut. Gen. William Shirley, who resigns.

Yesterday morning came on in the Court of King's Bench, Westminster, before the Right Hon. Lord Chief Justice Mansfield, the grand cause between the college of Physicians and the Licentiates, when, after a long hearing which lasted till near three o'clock, a verdict was given in favour of the former.

It has been asserted, that Mr. Wilkes was in negotiation with the ministers: We have authority to declare, that the assertion is absolutely false, and that he only said to two or three of the friends of the ministers, he was always ready to take any dutiful, humble, or submissive measure, with respect to the King, which should be hinted to him, was agreeable, but would never make an application to any present or future minister: That such was his resolution and declaration in the first stage of the late business, had been in the subsequent, and should be uniform to the last period of it. It remains to be seen, whether Mr. Wilkes will act up to this declaration, which he actually made.

It is said that Mr. Wilkes will remain in the King's Bench prison till Monday next, by which time it is expected the outlawry will be reversed, and that he will then be discharged.

It is said that a certain election in the North, has cost one of the candidates not less than 120,000l. and that he drew on his agent in town for 95,000l. at one draught.

A C C A R D.

OLD NICK presents his most respectful compliments to the glorious 1293 freeholders of the county of M——, who have chosen his dearly beloved eldest son John, to represent them in parliament: and cannot forbear congratulating them, at the most distinguished of Englishmen, in disregarding those obsolete notions of electing a man of character, and property, (as most likely to act with honour and uprightness) and making choice of Jack, who roars out independency, tho' supported by subscription, a blasphemer of his God, and a vilifier of his sovereign upon record. But says nevertheless, he shall think those moments, the happiest, which he employs, in maintaining the civil and religious rights of Englishmen. He begs you to consider his past conduct, as an earnest of his future, I am convinced it will prove so; and that a county which contains, more of my friends than the whole kingdom besides, has now got the properest man to represent them: One possessed of the finest talents to mislead an ignorant multitude, and to subvert religion and laws.

To you therefore my best thanks are due, and if any of you, his electors can read, you will observe my son desires to receive from time to time your instructions, which I entreat you may be such as may tend to restrain that seditious spirit he is possessed with; least expulsion, the pillory, and Newgate, should be his portion.

PHILADELPHIA, May 26.

The legislature of South-Carolina has lately passed an act of assembly, appointing circuit courts through the province; which for this purpose is divided into eight districts: and the office of provost-marshal being set aside, sheriffs are to be appointed; for which purpose the provincial judges are to name three persons, out of which the governor selects one. But the most remarkable clause in the act is, that which provides and settles salaries on the justices of the supreme court, on condition his Majesty will grant them patents during good behaviour. In this case the chief justice is to have £. 500, and the associate justices £. 200, sterling per annum.

Philadelphia, May 26 1768.

THE SUBSCRIBER begs leave to acquaint his friends and the public, that he has removed into that large and commodious Inn, situated in Third-street, (between Market and Arch-streets) for some time known by the name of the BULL'S HEAD, (but is now called the BUNCH OF GRAPES) where he purposes to keep a genteel HOUSE OF ENTERTAINMENT, for travellers and others, who may depend on the best fare and civillest treatment, as it will be his constant endeavour to give the most perfect satisfaction to all who shall favour him with their custom.

He has furnished his house with the best liquors, as well as every other requisite suitable to his design; and has also prepared STABLES and SHEDS (which are as good as any in this province) for the reception of HORSES and CAR-RIAGES, which shall be taken the utmost care of.

His house is very well calculated for an Inn, and has the advantage of an elegant and spacious room for the accommodation of large companies, who may have occasion to meet on business or recreation.

When it is considered that Third-street is becoming one of the grandest avenues into this city,—that the house stands in the neighbourhood of many principal merchants and capital stores,—and that it is also very near the market, the propriety of a good Inn, in such a place will undoubtedly be generally allowed,—he therefore hopes that his endeavours to serve and oblige, will (by the generosity of the public) be attended with some benefit to himself.
